

Coveme' s Biomedical division provides 100% local service

Recently, The world's leading high-performance polyester films manufacturer Coveme said that in recent years through the exploration and development of Biomedical films in Chinese market, now it can offer biomedical film overall solution for glucose meters and other medical equipment, and has a lot of domestic and foreign partners of medical equipment company. Its products have been widely used in Chinese best hospitals.

As the only supplier in the market with a complete offer of films to manufacture tests strips, Coveme provides printable base films、hydrophilic films and other custom materials. Coveme said the company developed a leading hydrophilic coatings technology to fully realize the thickness range from 19 to 500 μm .

These films have excellent printability , high dimensional stability and high hydrophilicity and other characteristics, they are widely used in various countries' important biomedical industry, and gain the full recognition by the world's top biosensor plants.

Coveme established in 1965, which is a leading converter of polyester films. With almost 50 years of experience in coating and converting, Coveme offers a thorough range of films addressed to the market of Biomedical products. Coveme offers films addressed to: SBGM devices (glucose test strips) and ECG / EKG printed sensors

Coveme headquartered in Bologna, Italy. Coveme's Total Quality System is in force to achieve the highest standards, in full compliance with UNI EN ISO 9001:2008 、 ISO 14000 and OHSAS18001:2007.

For more information please contact: Serena Gardella

Tel: +39 051 6226 111

email: sgardella@coveme.com